Hi all,

Is there any chance I get a copy of where they currently stand and rough synopsis of the plans. I know G was saying he was going to try and offset some of the surplus via GCV, so was curious how this all works out. I'm away for a few days, but would like to get to the bottom of the accounts situation next week, regardless of this happening with or without GB. I'm concerned that G a number issues on his plate so don't want it to be hamstrung from his end.

Jase

Dear Jason,

THE JET GROUP SERVICES LIMITED

Thank you for your email of 02/06/2018 concerning the overdue accounts for the period ending 31/07/2017.

As the company is required to remain on the register, the proposed strike off action has been discontinued. The failure to file accounts within the statutory time allowed is a criminal offence but I will defer any prosecution action for 28 days from the date of this letter.

If the company record is not brought up-to-date by that time, the directors may face criminal proceedings. Conviction for this offence will result in a criminal record and a potential unlimited fine for each document not delivered on time.

Please note that this deferral of prosecution action does not extend or alter the original statutory filing deadline. As the accounts are already late, a civil late filing penalty will automatically be incurred when they are received and accepted at Companies House. The amount of the penalty increases with the length of delay in delivery and is separate to any criminal proceeding being considered against the directors. Failure to comply with the filing requirements of the 2006 Companies Act in consecutive years will result in the penalty being doubled for the current year's accounts.

You can deliver certain types of accounts online via our Web Filing service, which has in-built checks to ensure that you get it right first time. Our website www.companieshouse.gov.uk gives information on this along with a full range of guidance booklets and forms.

Yours sincerely

Mr J Lock

Hi,

I understand you sent a letter with the ref: 10283570/DEF3AC regarding overdue accounts for The JET Group Services Ltd.

I am chasing this as a matter of urgency with my business partner and accountants, which has been complicated by a handful of exceptional legacy matters within the business.

I hope to update you within the next week regarding the matter with the accounts being filed shortly after, along with addressing the late filing fees.

Regards,

Jason
