Hi Karen,

Jason has forwarded me your email below (I work as a consultant to the company) and thus I have subsequently contacted the company's accountants PJ Marks this morning to ask for them to advise / direct as to who is best to address / respond to you and your request. (Apologies but Pierce redirecting you to effectively IT and business operations was probably not ideal as the companies' outsource their accounting and finance function to the aforesaid PJ Marks & Co who hold all the accounting records and indeed manage this department / function on behalf of the two companies The Jet Group Ltd and The Jet Group Services Ltd that you refer to),

Regardless, I hope that I am now able to steer you in the correct direction (and if not or if you have any further queries or requests then please do feel free to revert to me personally on either this email or my mobile 07740157204 and I will do my best to assist).

Please kindly correspond with Albie Turner of PJ Marks and Co (as said the companies' Accountants and Auditors) as they are best positioned to support and advance your request and to provide whatever information you need.

The owner of PJ Marks is Albie Turner and he is likely your best point of contact initially (I spoke with him accordingly this morning and have copied him into this email such that you can correspond directly - (albeit I would be grateful if you would keep me copied in on all correspondence if that is agreeable (?)) in order that I can try and ensure as to keep the business / management updated of any financial matters as may be appropriate etc).

FYI - Mr Turner advised me that "Neil Cameron" the accountant that principally manages the JET / JET services accounts is on vacation until Wednesday but as above - I think best if you simply converse / progress your request with Albie Turner in the first instance as I am sure he will be able and best placed to respond and agree an appointment with you to see the records etc.

Thus - I "virtually" introduce you both and leave you to resolve accordingly - again if you have any issues or further queries then please do feel free to revert to me personally at anytime.

Kind Regards
George

Subject: VAT review

Good morning

I have telephoned your accountant, Piers, this morning with a view to undertaking a VAT review for the two companies The Jet Group Ltd and The Jet Group Services Ltd.

He advised that it was better if I contacted you both directly via email and gave me both of your email addresses.

Could one or both of you get back to me by phone please so that I can arrange an appointment to see the records.

Many thanks

Karen Pryse
