Hi,

We still have not got any resolution over this.

I recall an email from Adam Voce or George stated this should not be paid until the VAT investigation has been completed.

I can't help but think the intent / modus operandi / default stance taken by some here seems to be simply to ignore these and not file accounts, nor present them to past and present directors.

So, can we please pay this, or please present the evidence from HMRC stating this (i.e. scan in from paperwork, or whatever).

Regards,
Jase.
