Dear Jason,

Notwithstanding the recent array and multitude of various emails and correspondences by yourself and others regarding JET, JETS, TTN, RAN, GCV, and numerous connected and associated individuals thereto, I note that you and myself engaged in a forthright, challenging, difficult but (I hope) paradoxically respectful conversation on the phone earlier today regarding many such enties and parties.

Thus, I hereby congruently and simply send this email correspondence respectively and accordingly so as to try and capture the positive elements from our conversation and perhaps also try and affirm the best intentions that I think maybe, despite the breakdown in trust, and the conflicting beliefs and perspectives at hand, might just possibly be able to be secured and enable further direct and decent ethical and moral engagement(s) on various important and critical matters such as to enable us both to try and still be able to realise benefit and value from the entities, businesses, companies and circumstances of relevance as are at hand – in the interests of such and hopefully to the benefit of many.

Regardless, from my own personal perspective, this is my hope and intent if such is at all attainable.

Moreover, I thank you for your time and for having the decency and courage to have at least called me direct as I had asked via previous correspondence.

You requested time to sleep on our discussions and I respect such.

Hence, again regardless of all the formal emails and correspondences as are at hand / occurring / being sent at this time I hope to hear from you tomorrow and I hope, that whilst I imagine you concur there can be no guarantees, that just maybe we can progress such discussions to try and find and collaboratively together define a resolutions to some of the respective, relevant important matters at hand; and do so objectively and pragmatically despite the very clear and significant difficulties as have been evidenced over recent times.

Regards
George
