Subject: Re: MailChimp Payment Problem

Importance: High

Good Morning Alec,

Please use the card details below to cover payments that were managed by Jason's card. Could you also please send me the list of payments that were covered by Jason's card that he should have provided prior to cancelling them to enable us to pick them up.

I will send you the starred numbers via WhatsApp.

Regards

Adam

Hi Adam, George, all...

We've had 20-odd complaints from people today that they didn't receive the research reports in their emails this morning. This is because the payment process for MailChimp is no longer valid.

Aubrey emailed yesterday about Jase cancelling his cards and this is the knock-on effect. Please, please, please can someone authorise Aub's request to get an alternative card???

Sorry guys, but this is, quite frankly, madness.

Alec.
