Thanks

Hi

Had a chat this morning with Adam V about IPC. I know we had some 'technical' issues historically and similarly some red tape issues too (all IPC end - US v UK basically) BUT with Alex P now not returning we need to collectively pick this up again. I/we think myself, Jase and Alec with a side order of Yog and Stuart P would most likely cover all angles of management, markets, clients/sales and IT. We have some handover documents from Alex P and I think as soon as possible we should all sit down and move this forward and I'm conscious of the fact Lloyds are still seeking some answers before commencing a trial.

Alec I know you're of on ski holiday this week so could we all meet (include Yog and perhaps Stu?) as early as possible next week, say Monday 11th?

Regards

Aubrey
