"INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY OFFSHORING PROJECT"

= i.e. Moving Servers and Hardware to a suitably stable, tax efficient, economically competitive and geographically close / suitable location EXTERNAL TO THE EU - given BREXIT risks and also the potential tax and IT community advantages (Maybe Isle of Man etc.) PLEASE NOTE - THIS IS AN INITIAL VIEW PROPOSED ON MY BRIEF RESEARCH - I WOULD STRONGLY RECOMMEND THAT JASON / LAURA / AUB YOU DO FURTHER RESEARCH AND CONCLUDE ON A PROPOSED SOLUTION TO PUT FORWARD TO THE LAB (Leadership Advisory Board) by month end.

Jason,

(Laura to concurrently ensure delivery back to Aub as agreed - i.e. LB to assist Jason given he is often offsite and prj mgt skills may not be his biggest asset?! ;)

Please can you confirm this has been moved out of my name (prob best in yours or maybe Adam Voce) as JET moves forward for post migration as discussed.

ALSO - URGENTLY - And again as discussed I would strongly advise that this and ALL SERVERS & HARDWARE are based outside the European Union as soon as possible given Brexit is looming and the other beneficial factors we discussed that may in time be delivered.

Perhaps research the best place for internet companies to base servers ? I did a bit but time is not my friend.

Thanks

G

George Busfield,

I am very sorry for this inconvenience. This is actually a UI glitch which you can ignore at this time. Our developers should have that glitch resolved when our next website update is published. This option is currently enabled for you and you should be all set. Please let us know if you have any other questions and we will be more than happy to help.

Sincerely,
Mark @ TypeFrag
