Hi Jason,

Can you confirm that you agree with George. It is a legal requirement to have the company name on the invoice.

Thanks,

Yep, do it for this client. I'll consult with G if we do this for other clients. We are due to rename the RAN brand soon (probably to TraderSquawk). If we do this, then I'm thinking we should register TraderSquawk as a company for new clients and use that and make JET a holding company, but need to have a chat with G over this. I also think we probably should do the same with TTN though that's less important.

Jase.

Good afternoon Jason,

I hope you are well.

I have received this request from a customer asking us to put 'The Jet Group Limited' on the invoice. The details on the invoice should really match to one company as problems could arise later down the road. Are you happy to proceed with this request?

Thanks,
