Hi Adam,

We spoke today about setting up PayPal as an alternative payment gateway. If you could please use invoices@ransquawk.com as the primary email address that would be ideal. The three named users should be myself, Aiden Cronin and Ruth Spilsbury. If you need separate email address details for them these are first.last@ransquawk.com; but we would want people who use PayPal to make their payments to invoices@ransquawk.com. In this way Ryan in accounts will also see payments being made. Ryan's email is billings@accounts.ransquawk.com.

Thinking about it of course it also makes sense for Aubrey to have a login, if separate logins are required.

For the password, let's use WorldPay0219!

Many thanks,

Alec.
